

In This Issue . . .

NiR Study Modules

Using print and video material from archival issues of News in Review, teachers and students can create thematic modules for independent assignments, and small group study.

Related CBC Videos

Other videos available from CBC Learning; see the back cover for contact details.

THE COPENHAGEN CLIMATE CHANGE SUMMIT (Length: 15:16)

In December, 192 nations gathered in Copenhagen to discuss climate change. The plan was to begin drafting a document to replace the Kyoto Protocol, which expires in 2012. In this News in Review story we'll look at the summit preparations and examine the debate over climate change in this country.

NiR Study Modules

The Dangers of Global Warming, May 2007

A Call for Action on Climate Change

March 2007

The Big Melt: Canada's Changing Arctic

September 2006

After Kyoto: Trying to Cool the Planet

February 2006

Related CBC Videos

Climate Change I: An Uncertain Future

Climate Change II: Hot Times in the City

Cooling the Planet

Earth Energy

Polar Bear Fever

Suzuki Diaries: Sustainability in Action

Visions of the Future

IS THE RECESSION REALLY OVER? (Length: 16:15)

It's been just over a year since Canada was hit by the effects of a global recession. More than 350 000 people lost their jobs. Now there are some faint signs of recovery; but is the recession really over? In this News and Review story we'll look at the state of the Canadian economy and what economists are saying about its future.

NiR Study Modules

The Recession and the Developing World

May 2009

Canada Gets a Recession Budget

March 2009

Canada Faces a Recession, December 2008

Canada and the Economic Breakdown

November 2008

Related CBC Videos

Canadian Innovations

The Hour Does Business

Mystery of Capital

THE INTERNET: FORTY YEARS LATER (Length: 16:07)

It's been 40 years since the Internet was born. Since then it has revolutionized our world. But it has also brought with it a host of new problems. In this News in Review story we'll look at the birth of the Internet and examine some issues that are clouding its future.

Related CBC Videos

Can You Hack It? The Attack on Your Personal Info
Canning the Spam
Cyber Terror: Computer Crime
Facebook Factor: Social Networking for Profit
It's a Teen's World
On-line Business Trends
The Selling Game

THE GREAT U.S. HEALTH CARE DEBATE (Length: 14:46)

Shortly after assuming office U.S. President Barack Obama announced plans to reform his country's health-care system. The announcement set off a furious debate, with both sides citing Canada's Medicare system to back up their arguments. In this News in Review story we'll look at why the U.S. system needs to be reformed and one good reason our system is better.

NiR Study Modules

A Prescription for Health Care
December 2002
Making the Health-care System Work
April 2002
Health Care: A New National Program
October 2000

Related CBC Videos

Canada's Social Safety Net
The Greatest Canadian: Tommy Douglas
The History of Science in Canada: The Birth of Modern Medicine

Sections marked with this symbol contain content suitable for younger viewers.