

In This Issue . . .

NiR Study Modules

Using print and video material from archival issues of News in Review, teachers and students can create thematic modules for independent assignments, and small group study.

Related CBC Videos

Other videos available from CBC Learning; see the back cover for contact details.

PARLIAMENT AND THE DETAINEE ISSUE (Length: 15:09)

In March, opposition members of Parliament tabled an explosive motion in the House of Commons. They asked the Speaker of the House to rule that the Conservative government was violating parliamentary privilege by withholding documents on the treatment of Afghan detainees. In this News in Review story we'll look at the Afghan detainee issue and how it could trigger a constitutional crisis and a federal election.

NiR Study Modules

Richard Colvin and the Afghan Detainees
February 2010
Afghanistan's Troubled Election
October 2009
Guantanamo Bay and Omar Khadr
March 2009
Omar Khadr: Canadian in Guantanamo
September 2007

Related CBC Videos

Afghanada (audio)
Afghanistan: Between Hope and Fear
Iran's Young Rebels
US vs Omar Khadr

HOW CANADIANS ARE HELPING HAITI (Length: 15:58)

In January, the Caribbean country of Haiti was devastated by a powerful earthquake. More than 200 000 people were killed and more than a million were left homeless. Canadians reacted generously to the calls for help by raising millions of dollars for Haiti relief. In this News in Review story we'll look at how some of those dollars are helping Haitians and why most of the money still hasn't been spent.

NiR Study Modules

A Deadly Earthquake Devastates Haiti
March 2010
Kashmir Quake: Disaster in South Asia
November 2005
Tsunami: The Indian Ocean Disaster
February 2005
City of Death: Iran's Killer Quake
February 2004
Earthquakes: The West Coast Threat
April 2001

Related CBC Videos

Flora's Afghan Mission: Politician to Humanitarian
Ray of Light
Volunteerism in Canada: Random Acts of Kindness

HOW TOLERANT ARE CANADIANS? (Length: 15:41)

Canada is a multicultural country where people of many races and backgrounds live in harmony. Most of us are proud of our diversity and like to think we live in a country where prejudice isn't a problem. But how tolerant are we? In this News in Review story we'll look at how a racist incident shocked a community and ask pollsters and ordinary Canadians whether we should be doing more to fight intolerance.

NiR Study Modules

Canada's Residential School Apology
September 2008

Changing Canada's Immigration Rules
May 2008

Quebec's Reasonable Accommodation
Debate, December 2007

The Act that Made Us Canadian
October 2007

Policing and Race in Canada
December 2002

Racism: Then and Now, October 2001

Related CBC Videos

Expulsion: The Story of Acadia

Little Mosque on the Prairie

Police Diversity: To Serve and Protect Reds, Whites and the Blues

Trouble with Tolerance (audio)

K'NAAN: A CANADIAN SINGS FOR THE WORLD (Length: 15:25)

He was born in the war-ravaged African country of Somalia. As a teenager he survived some mean streets in Toronto. Now K'naan is a global singing sensation, and one of his songs is the official song of this summer's world soccer championship in South Africa. In this News in Review story we'll go on the road with K'naan and ask him how his turbulent life has influenced his music and his message.

NiR Study Modules

Peace Radio: Canadian Voices in Somalia
May 2004

Remy Shand: Canadian Soulman
May 2002

Sections marked with this symbol contain content suitable for younger viewers.